Dedication

We, the Yearbook Staff of Danbury Township High School, proudly dedicate The 1970 Totem to Mr. and Mrs. David Slosser, members of the faculty.

Throughout the school year, the Slossers patiently and willingly devoted many hours outside the classroom to student activities. As sponsors of the Class of 1970, they dedicated themselves wholeheartedly to helping the seniors raise funds for the class trip.

On behalf of the student body, we would like to thank you, Mr. and Mrs. Slosser, for the contributions you have made to our school. We sincerely hope your stay at Danbury will be a long and happy one.

F.H.A. Honors Mothers At Spring Banquet

Under the capable leadership of president Elaine Batcha, the Future Homemakers of America was one of the most creative and active organizations at Lakeside High.

In the fall of 1969, the F.H.A. spent an enjoyable evening listening to a representative from Patricia Stevens, Toledo. This spring, the Homemakers journeyed to the Toledo Zoo for a fun-filled Saturday excursion.

After many months of hard work and planning, the girls honored their mothers at a Mother and Daughter Banquet in May. The F.H.A. must be commended for the way they successfully managed this banquet and their many other activities this past school year.

Dramatic "Pump Scene" Climax Of Play

On November 12, 1969 William Gibson's dramatic three-act play "The Miracle Worker" was professionally presented by the senior class under the direction of Mrs. Diane Slosser, Judy Steward, and Bill Zieber.

"The Miracle Worker" is the story of the courageous teacher, Annie Sullivan (Jane Wiechel) and her famous deaf and dumb pupil, Helen Keller (Darlene Fatiga). Miss Sullivan, herself partially blind, is employed by the Keller family to attempt to communicate with and control Helen.

Annie Sullivan's determination and the mutual love which has gradually developed between teacher and pupil is witnessed in the final act. Here, in the emotionally and dramatically tense pump scene, Helen utters her first words "Wah, Wah." Amidst real tears of joy and love, the curtains close.

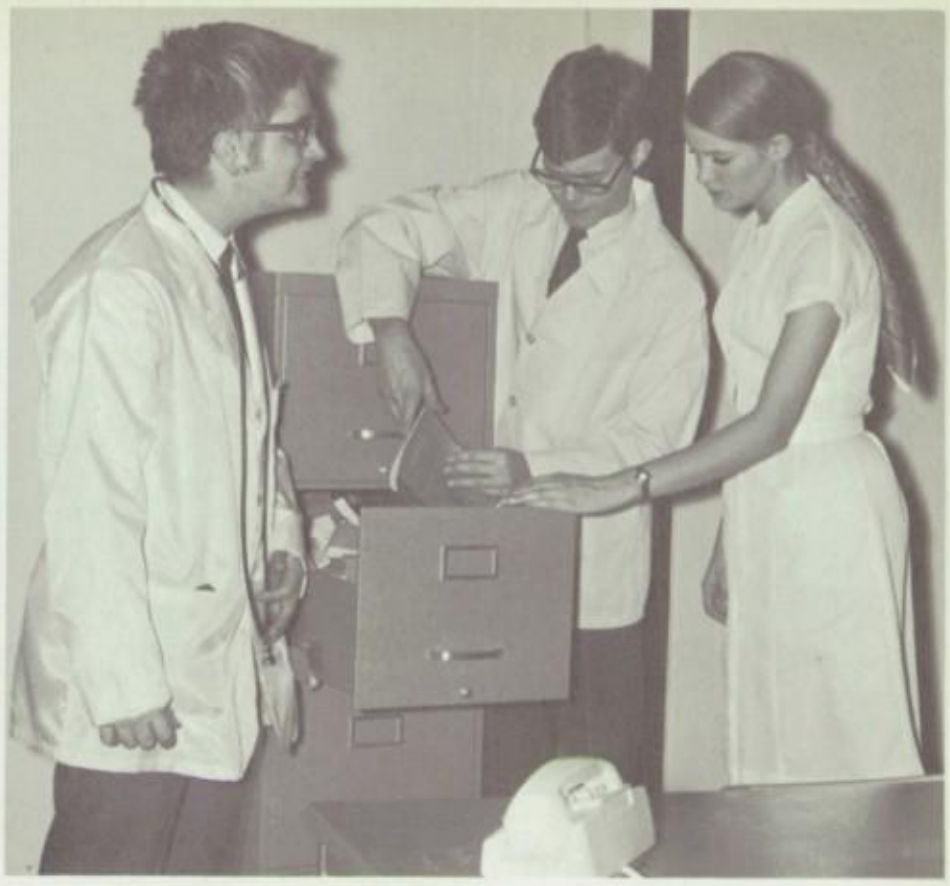
Percy: "She tryin' talk. She gonna get mad. Looka her tryin' talk."

CAST SEATED: Nancy Dziak as Myrtle Simmons; Beth Leggett as Veta Simmons; Brad Steward as Elwood Dowd; Ron Ontko as Judge Omar Gaffney. STANDING: Mrs. Slosser; student directors: Connie Lanum and Denise Biro; Martha Sauvey as Mrs. Ethel Chauvenet; Rosalyn Motel as Miss Johnson; Mark Robbins as Duane Wilson; James Nichols as Dr. William Chumley; Anna Kruse as Betty Chumley; Pat Kihlken as Nurse Ruth Kelly; Keith Joy as E. J. Lofgren; Tom Butchko as Dr. Lyman Sanderson.

Juniors' "Harvey" Amuses Audience

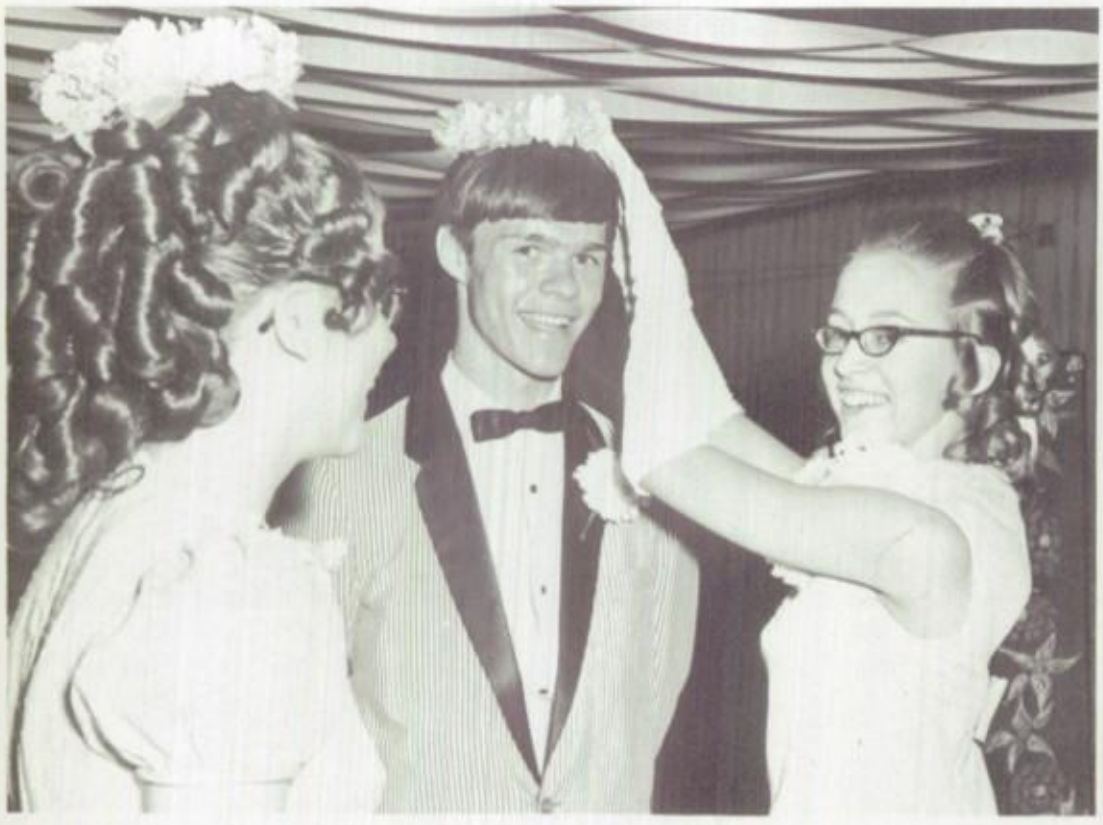
After the hilarious and successful two-nighter "Harvey," student directors Denise and Connie present a bouquet and gift to faculty director Mrs. Diane Slosser.

Mrs. Chauvenet: "Elmwood! Elmwood Dowd! Bless your heart."

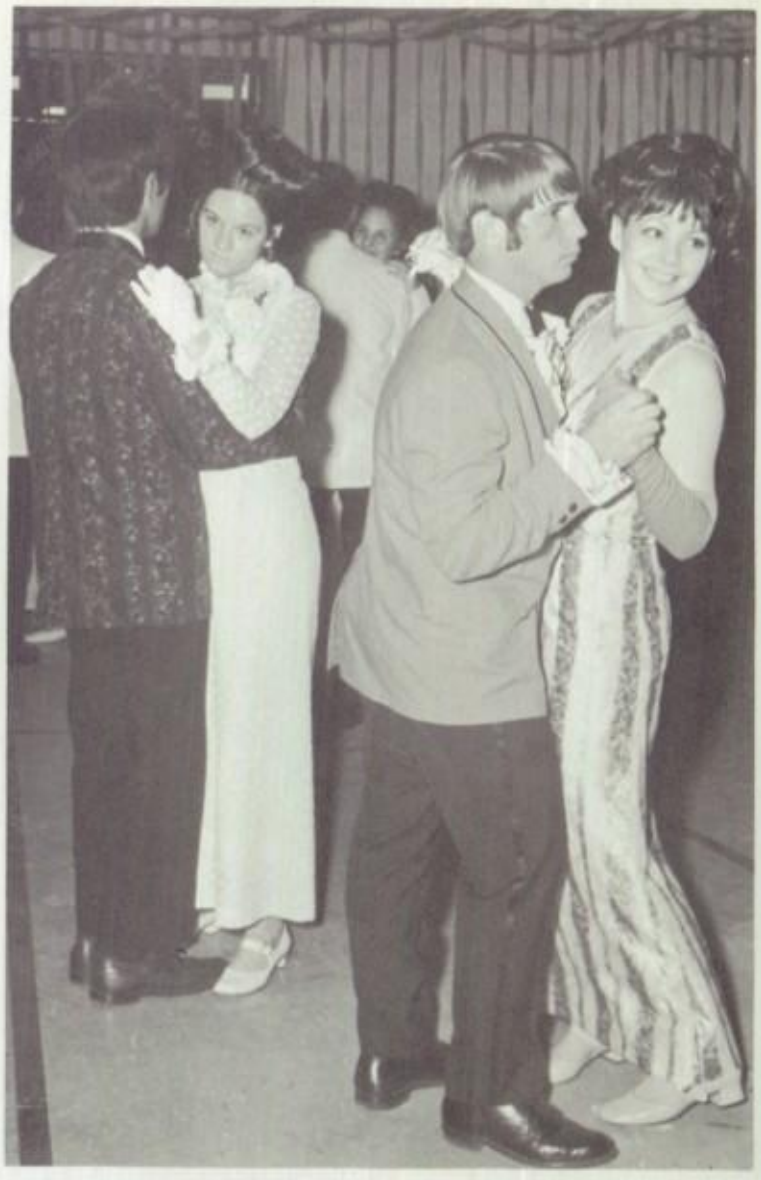


Dr. Sanderson: "Yet Doctor, she called him Harvey."

Myrtle: "If I do they say, 'That's Myrtle Mae Simmons. Her uncle is Elmwood P. Dowd--the biggest screwball in town. Elmwood P. Dowd and his pal--'".



Anna Kruse crowns happy and smiling Hank Butchko King of the Junior-Senior Prom.



Gail and Jerry enjoy music.

"Are You Going To Scarborough Fair"

King Hank and Queen Linda dance to the tune of "Scarborough Fair."

Couples mingle and admire the gorgeously decorated multipurpose room.

"Are you going to Scarborough Fair?
Parsley, Sage, Rosemary,
And Thyme.
Remember me to the one
who lives there.
She once was a true
love of mine."

Fascinating twirls and streamers of purple, pink, and orchid crepe paper were the final climax of months of planning when on May 2, 1970, the juniors hosted the seniors at "Scarborough Fair."

The multi-purpose room was authentically and artistically transformed into a country town in Olde England. Beautiful murals of quaint shops and colorfully dressed peasants covered one wall, and hundreds of crepe paper swirls concealed two others.

A beautiful garden scene--which contained a sparkling fountain with live, petite orchids floating in it--provided the ideal location for professionally taken photographs.

The junior class is to be commended for their skill and creativity. The 1970 Junior-Senior Prom was indeed a legend--a true "Scarborough Fair."

Excited and surprised, Linda Ackerman is crowned Prom Queen by junior class president Lee French.

Formed in Lakeside High
Far surpassing wealth unspoken
Sealed by friendship's tie.

Deep graven on each heart
Shall be found unwavering true
When we from life shall part.

High school life at best is passing
Gliding swiftly by
Let us pledge in word and deed
Our love for Lakeside High.
